Weight loss medications prescribed as part of Revive's Weight Health Program are not included in our prescription formulary. The cost of these medications varies depending on the type and brand and will be the responsibility of the member.

Revive's Weight Health Program adheres to state-specific regulations concerning the prescription and availability of weight health medications. In Louisiana (LA), weight loss medications are not prescribed. In California (CA) and Alabama (AL), oral compounded semaglutide medications are not included as part of the program. In Mississippi (MS), compounded GLP-1 products are similarly excluded. These guidelines are established in accordance with applicable state laws and Revive's program policies, which are subject to change.
